When (name of school) sponsors an athletic event, it considers that event to be an extension of the classroom. Students will learn lessons in the contests area that are just as important as those they learn in the classroom and from a textbook. Among these lessons is good sportsmanship - this is a course that will serve everyone well in the game of life. Remember to always sport a winning attitude. In our society, winning has come before everything. If winning comes at the expense of good sportsmanship, then nothing is gained in the long run. Good sportsmanship by adults and students is the result of a disciplined effort to respect yourself, your opponents, and to practice the golden rule. Remember to sport a winning attitude today! This is a public service message from (name of school) and (station's call letters).
